Haystack for me means peace, liberty, curiosity and then the many occasions for me to meet new people and new culture. In my mind, Haystack also has some wonderful people like Stuart Kestenbaum, Susan Webster, Mary Nybrug, Candy Haskell, Jackie Michaud...

When I went to Haystack for the first time my hair was much more than now. Also I was skinnier and younger. I arrived there with Dan Dailey for the first time. Because of my beautiful experience there, I have returned to Haystack many times to teach.

Haystack has given me many opportunities, which I like very much. There I have met many friends who I cannot forget. It is impossible for me to forget the night full of stars in the sky, the fog, the rain, the water in the field.

The experience in the hot shop was stimulant and productive. There I have always had time to try something new. I would always go back.
